

YOUNG WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

THROUGH THE JENNA DRUCK FOUNDATION

TURNING STRENGTH INTO LEADERSHIP!

The Jenna Druck Foundation hosts dynamic and interactive workshops and conferences for young girls that inspire and train girls to become tomorrow's leaders. The Young Women's Leadership Program is for girls only who want to make a difference in the community. Through a series of workshops and conferences young girls will network with others who are making a difference too. Forums and workshops are open to High School and Middle School age girls. Two conferences are held yearly one for High School girls and the other for Middle School girls. Girls making a difference!

All quest speakers and performers will be announced at a later date but we ask you to save the dates for the following workshops:
